[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Denver, Colo., March 20.—Owing to the fear of snowslides all the mines in the neighborhood have been closed and three thousand miners have fled to Silverton for safety. Sixteen men lost their lives by avalanches in this district in the past few days. The property loss is estimated at a half-million dollars. The railroad between Silverton and Durango is blockaded and Silverton is now facing a famine.

The Illinois Central passenger train leaving Decatur at 7:15 Monday for Champaign is still in the snowdrift at Argenta, twelve miles from Decatur. Four engines tried all night to move it. Twelve passengers are comfortable in the cars and farmers nearby are supplying food and hot coffee.

WALLACE ADVOCATES A SEA LEVEL CANAL

Says It Could Be Constructed In Ten Years at a Cost of Three Hundred Million.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Washington, D. C., March 20.—John F. Wallace, former chief engineer of the Panama canal commission, in a statement before the senate committee on inter-oceanic canals today advocated approximately a straight, sea-level canal of ample width and depth as the best type. He deemed three hundred million dollars ample for its construction. Mr. Wallace predicts that upon the basis of reasonable energy and the use of proper business methods of administration, a sea-level canal can be fully completed in ten, or to be entirely safe, say twelve years, and a lock canal, even if only sixty feet above sea-level, should require only three years less.

OIL MAGNATES' HEALTH FAILS

William Rockefeller Incurably Ill With Cancer Of The Stomach--Is In Europe.

H. H. ROGERS SUFFERING IN MIND

Speculative Member Of Great Combination Faces Death, Business Head Is In Decline, And Founder Retired, Concern Loses Power.

[Special to The Gazette.]

New York, March 20.—Private advice received in this city, said to be identical with that which caused the death of the late William Rockefeller, who has been in Europe since early last fall, has cancer of the stomach and that his malady is incurable.

The illness of William Rockefeller is a blow of stupendous proportions to the Standard Oil group. John D. Rockefeller has ceased to be an actual factor in the manifold undertakings of the group for many months.

With William Rockefeller incurably ill and John D. Rockefeller in semi-retirement, the two great geniuses of the Standard Oil are practically eliminated.

All the burdens of the combination which heretofore were divided are now being borne by Henry H. Rogers, who is 64 years old, and according to men who know him well, not as able and as capable as he was a few years ago. Those who have dealings with him say that his memory has failed materially in the last year. They also declare his judgment is not as keen nor as accurate as formerly.

Has Passed Its Zenith.

Summed up, it is the opinion of thoughtful men in the financial district that the Standard Oil giant has seen its greatest days and that from now on it will decline in power and skill. This does not mean that any of the present wealth will shrink or be dissipated, but that as an aggressive force capable of having its will obeyed in any venture it undertakes it has come to a standstill.

All of the skill of the Standard Oil in its most secret undertakings has been employed to keep the true nature of William Rockefeller's illness from becoming known. He is 61 years old, and has lived under a tremendous nervous strain for forty years. He has been the speculative member of the Standard group of capitalists, and has engineered all of the vast deals of that combination in the stock market. Next to his elder brother, John D. Rockefeller, probably he is the richest man in the United States.

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started to Use Newbro's Herpicide.Frederick Mannoll, Maryland block, Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of New-bro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 30 days he had hair all over his head.
On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the worm that causes dandruff, falling hair, and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain.
Stops falling hair at once and a new growth starts. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample

OTHER IMPORTANT MATTERS

Health Officer Is To Make a Report on All Contagious Diseases in City During Year.In addition to the routine business several important matters were brought to the attention of the city council at the regular meeting last evening. Alderman Fish announced that he had made an estimate of from 735 to 795 as the number of street signs which would be necessary to properly label the thoroughfares of Janesville and that a number of posts would also be needed. If agreeable to the aldermen he would send and get estimates on the basis of the before-mentioned figures. The final plans and specifications for the paving of River street from Pleasant to the West Side, fire station and the alley adjoining the postoffice and connecting River and Franklin streets, were presented. No property-holder appeared to protest against the project and the plans were adopted together with an order calling for the assessment of benefits and damages.

Sewer Bill Disallowed

The salary list of March, the finance committee's report on bills, and the board of education's report were favorably passed upon. Ald. Fish introduced a motion, which was carried, calling upon City Health Officer T.
H. McCarthy to make a complete report to the council at the next meeting if possible, of all the cases of contagious diseases in the city for the past year. The Cargill-Methodist church presented a bill for $110 for the construction of 220 feet of sewer at 50 cents a foot, originally charged to the church. It was intimated that the church people understood that the city had promised to meet this bill. When called upon for an opinion City Attorney Burpee expressed himself as unable to see where there was any liability on the part of the city. There had been a sewer in that locality, but it was not deep enough for connections with the church. Ald. Connell thought that when the plans were originally drawn it was the purpose to run the sewer up Franklin street and that the Methodist people had erected their building with this expectation in view. Ald. Sheridan disagreed with this and stated that the sewer was to come down Pleasant street by the original plans. Ald.
Fish moved that the bill be disallowed and returned to the sender. The motion prevailed.

Settled for Personal Injury

On motion of Ald. Jackman, the clerk was instructed to draw an order on the city treasurer for $50 in favor of John Cunningham, attorney for Robert O'Hara, in full settlement for injuries sustained by the youth on a sidewalk on Cornelia street on the night of May 2, last. A wire stretched across the walk was the cause of the accident and notice to the effect that the city would be held liable was given some months ago. By an order introduced by Ald. Connell the chief engineer was authorized to purchase key-guards for 20 fire alarm boxes, at a cost not to exceed $50.
The city clerk was instructed by an order to give notice of the annual municipal election to be held on the first Tuesday in April. The Electric Light Co. was instructed to move an are light at the corner of Gedfield and Oakland avenues to the intersection of Jefferson and Oakland. The street commissioner was instructed by an order introduced by Ald. Hager to repair South High street from Galena to Washington avenue as soon as weather conditions permit. Authority was given for the purchase of necessary supplies for the stone-crusher by the city clerk.

Milk from Diseased Cows

Ald. Jackman announced that just before the session commenced he had received a telephone message from State Veterinarian E. D. Roberts to the effect that the latter had on exhibition at his office the lungs of a diseased cow which had been furnishing milk to the city dairies. If the city officers cared to examine these he would be glad to have them do so as there had been some suggestion that an ordinance regulating the milk supply ought to be framed and passed. Ald. Jackman moved that the council inspect the diseased lungs at two o'clock Wednesday afternoon.What Do You Feed YOUR Baby?If the Stomach Causes Distress, There's Something Wrong.
Does Baby's stomach cause trouble?
Does constipation make Baby's days miserable and nights restless and increase your cares and worries?
Before you become really alarmed and call in the doctor to give the little one a lot of drugs, just stop and think about what you have been feeding Baby. Have you let it eat "what the others eat?"Perhaps Baby is three or four years old and therefore you feast it on meat and potatoes and gravy and pie? If that's true, and it is true in countless thousands of homes, there is no mystery about Baby's stomach trouble.
You may reply that Baby has to have nourishing food just the same as anyone else. True enough. But it needs—and it must have, if it is to grow up and be healthy and robust, nourishing food that it can digest easily.Most mothers know, though many of them never apply this knowledge, that in wheat Nature has provided for us one food which contains all the elements necessary for the sustenance of life and the positive assurance of health and happiness. When prepared in the form of Malta-Vita, wheat is the perfect food for babies, whether they are weak and sickly, or strong and well and it is just as good for grown folks. All grocers sell Malta-Vita. Ready to eat. Crisp and delicious. Now 10 cents.The motion prevailed. An ordinance providing for the adoption of such sections of the general charter law as to permit the city of Janesville to employ more assessors than are now retained in the service, was given its first and second reading at a previous meeting. Last night it was given its third reading and placed on passage.

Debate on River Line

When an ordinance introduced at the previous meeting and providing for the establishment of the boundary line of Rock river was called up for its third reading by Ald. Jackman a spirited discussion arose over certain changes that had been made in the original plans drawn by City Engineer Kerch. Ald. Murray complained that the amendment was not favored in some quarters and had never been referred to the highway committee.
Ald. Jackman replied to the effect that the ordinance had never been amended—that he had introduced the measure on his own responsibility and that it was the only measure which would be acceptable to all property owners along the portion of the river affected, with the exception of Mr. Jeffris.
The latter had agreed to be at the meeting and the speaker had purposefully delayed bringing the matter up until the last moment in order to give Mr. Jeffris an opportunity to be heard. He had not appeared. Ald.
Merritt called attention to the fact that the line as established by this ordinance cut off a portion of the engine room of the Riverside laundry.
He suggested that the line be amended so as to include the engine room.
Ald. Jackman was not averse to making this concession, but he said that if any more than that was granted the other property-holders would strenuously object. "Mr. Jeffris tells me now that he insists on having the line at the corner of Ford's store.
His position is that if we'll put the line where he wants it, he'll live up to it; if we don't, he won't." Statements were made to the effect that Mr. Jeffris had filled in the river at its narrowest part for a distance of 20 feet or more, but that he was willing to take some of the filling out and put in piling if the line was placed where he wanted it. Ald. Baumann said that the other property-holders would stand for giving Mr. Jeffris more than he was entitled to. Ald.
Jackman called attention to the fact that the gentleman in question had no rights to any of this "made land" in the river. It was finally agreed that the highway committee, and the other members of the council should hold a special meeting Thursday afternoon at 4:30 to decide the matter.OF INTEREST TO ALL TOBACCO TRADESMENUnited States Board of General Appraisers Renders Decision on Mooted Matter.Washington, D. C., March 20.—The United States Board of General Appraisers has rendered an opinion in the matter of the dutiable value of Cuban cigars when imported, the main points of which are the following:"Where appraisers ascertain the market value of goods exported from a foreign country under the provisions of section 19 of the customs administrative act, such value is regulated by the price at which such goods are bought and sold in usual wholesale quantities for home consumption at the time of exportation, and not by the export price of such goods, where the two values differ."Where certain cigars exported from Cuba are subject to an internal revenue tax of $2 per thousand, and the market value of such goods in Cuba is ascertained to be the invoice value, less the internal revenue tax, such tax is a nondutiable item, forming no part of such value, unless it is voluntarily included by the importer as such in making his entry."Where the importers of such cigars offered to make entry of the merchandise so as to exclude from the value, this internal revenue tax, and this offer was refused by the collector, the addition of such tax being made a condition precedent to the acceptance of the entry by the collector, such entry held to be made under duress and is not binding on the importer."The decision is in the case of the protests of U. Koan & Co. against the assessment of duty by the collector of customs at the port of New Orleans, and was rendered by Appraiser Somerville. The various in-voices in these cases stated the per value of certain cigars purchased in and shipped from Cuba, including the cases and the cost of packing. In making the entry of the goods, however, the importers included in the dutiable value an item of $2 per thousand cigars, which is claimed by the government to represent the internal revenue tax levied on cigars sold for home consumption in Cuba. The collector assessed duty upon each importation under paragraph 217 of the tariff act of 1897, which provides for cigars at $4.50 per thousand and 25 per cent ad valorem under paragraph 217 less twenty per cent allowance on account of the reciprocity agreement.
In making assessment of the ad valorem duty he included in the dutiable value of the cigars the internal revenue tax as above stated. The importers claim that they were compelled to pay this tax, and did so under duress, not being permitted to make the entry at the per se value of the goods, which they claim represented the actual market value of the cigars at the time of shipment.The action of the collector is claimed by the government to be in accordance with the ruling of the Board in the case of Duncan & Moorehead, and other decisions. This decision held that an importer voluntarily adds an item of 32 per thousand to the entry of cigars, such item is to be included in the dutiable value of such merchandise under section 7 of the customs administrative act of June 13, 1890, namely, that duty shall not be assessed in any case upon an amount less than the invoice or entered value. Where an entry is made under duress, so as to include in the entered value an item not properly dutiable, the importer can obtain duress before the Board or the courts. This decision wasaffirmed in effect on appeal being taken to the circuit court for the Southern district of New York in the case of Acker, Merrill and Condit Company and Park & Tilford vs. the United States. It appeared at that time that this tax on cigars sold in Cuba was collected on domestic sales made for home consumption, although remitted upon exportation and the domestic market value was held to be the proper market value for dutiable purposes.
It is made to appear, however, that at the time these goods were exported they were sold in the markets of Cuba at a price which excluded the internal revenue tax in question. In other words, this price was held to be the market value of the goods in the principal markets of Cuba at and before the time of exportation, and this finding is in accordance with the practice at New Orleans and New York and other ports as ascertained and affirmed by the Board in various cases.Appraiser Somerville points out that the testimony in this case shows that the importers offered to make entry of the merchandise at its entered value less the internal revenue tax, and that this was refused and the addition of the $2 in question was made a condition precedent to the acceptance of the entry by the collector, and that this was done under instructions from the Treasury Department. He therefore finds that the entries so far as they included the addition of the revenue tax of $2 per thousand cigars, were made under duress and not binding on the importers. The protests were therefore sustained and the collector's decision reversed with instructions to reliquid-ate the entries accordingly.HANDSOME BOOKLET

FOOTLIGHT FLASHES

Judging from the trend of the New York reviews, one of the most important character types in "Zira," the play made famous in a night by Margaret Anglin's politely sensational interpretation of the title role, next to the star part is the character of Sir Frederick Knowles, F. T. C. S., played by George S. Titherage, Sir Frederick in the play is head surgeon in the English army, and his duties bring him in close touch with the most dramatic incidents in the strange career of the picturesque main character in the great drama, "Zira." Titherage, as Sir Frederick, is said to be a most incentive spirit to Anglin in some of her best scenes, and Henry Miller, co-author and producer of the drama, credits Titherage with being one of the most capable character players in America. There are about twenty other distinct character types in the piece, and the Messrs. Shubert assure us that in the forthcoming local appearance of "the American Bernhard," all these will be interpreted by the original players who took part in "Zira," now famous two hundred nights run at the Princess Theatre in New York. Also we are to have the identical scenic detail and general stage effects that embellished the Broadway production and helped to make it the biggest straight dramatic success of the present theatrical season. Margaret Anglin will appear at the Myers Grand Friday, March 23.

"Everything is impossible until we see a success." Your own business is probably bigger now than you thought "possible" before you became a shrewd (which means a "large") advertiser.

That ground hog was certainly up to snuff this year.

Tomorrow we will know who is to be next city attorney.

The March lamb has developed into a full fledged wolf all right.

Weather prophets who predicted an early spring appear disappointed.

There is no question now but winter is hanging on like grim death.

There is some talk of organizing a "Mary Ann League" in the city.

Instead of the old song "Asleep at the Switch" it should be "Asleep at the Key."

It is all right to borrow a horse for a trip but is not so much fun for the man who loses it.

If the judgeship is to be retained in Rock county a vote for Judge Dunwiddie is the only way to do it.

Some times one's closest friends are the worst advisors possible when it comes to political matters.

Aldermen and aldermanic candidates can tomorrow begin figuring out the dope for the coming year.

The state has now had its first taste of the primary law and the question is "how do you like it?"

If there was any democratic party in Janesville today would have been called good democratic weather.

Before you know it the whole state will be boiling with the politics and no chance to breathe until next September.

Did you vote at the primaries today? If not, they are open until seven and you should exercise your rights of franchise.

The good old days of the municipal league are recalled by the action of the University professors who would purge athletics at the state University.

Nothing has been heard of the Reformed republican club so earnestly advocated by a reform disciple since the cold snap struck us a few weeks ago. Has it been frost bitten?

The Beloit Daily News stops in its battle for civic rights in Beloit to endorse the Gazette's action that something radical ought to be done to save the circuit judgeship to Rock county.

There is not much hope that any alderman will dare introduce an ordinance into the council to remove the telephone poles from the gutter down east Milwaukee street but it ought to be done just the same.

When one coterie of men become convinced that they are right they think that every one who has a different opinion is wrong. Witness the contest among the attorneys to name the circuit judgeship.

Judge Grimm is making a strenuous campaign of "doubtful" character, to win the circuit judgeship. Many are being swept off their feet by his novel methods of gaining votes and forget the dignity that the office he aspires demands.

Is it possible that some of the men who are so strenuously backing Judge Sale for circuit judge covet his position as probate judge, hoping by political influence to gain their ends should Sale be elected? Perish the thought that judgeships are trafficked in like groceries or sheep and hogs.

The more farmers think about Mr. Jeffris and Mr. Cooper comparing their opinions as to the Philippine tariff bill the more the sentiment favors Mr. Jeffris. Farmers are quick to recognize their friends and communities the men who stand for what they believe to be right.

THE CIRCUIT JUDGESHIP.

Nobody claims that any one of the candidates for circuit judge is a better lawyer or better equipped by training and experience for the office than the present circuit judge, Judge Dunwiddie, who has discharged his duties with such ability and impartiality for the past seven years. Only one thing is urged in behalf of the other three candidates; and that is, their popularity as county judges. The people of this county, for example, are satisfied and pleased with Judge Dunwiddie's administration of the office; no one thought of suggesting any change until some of the lawyers started a campaign for Judge Sale for the office, and now he is being actively supported by a number of the lawyers. The people are not anxious to displace Judge Dunwiddie in order to put Judge Sale in his place, the great majority of the people being thoroughly satisfied with the present situation. We now have two excellent judges, each especially able, skilled and experienced in his present office. Judge Dunwiddie in the circuit court and Judge Sale in the county court. The desire of the people of the county is to keep them both in their present places, and they have just re-elected Judge Sale for a four year term. The lawyers who desire a change from a small portion of the community, and the question is being asked among the people whether these men are to be at their pleasure. The fact that, under the circumstances, it is impossible to elect Judge Sale to the office, with the home vote divided between him and Judge Dunwiddie, and that the result of Judge Sale's candidacy may be to defeat both him and Judge Dunwiddie and give the circuit judgeship to an adjoining county, seems to have no effect upon the lawyers who are pushing Judge Sale for the office.

A BALLOT MONSTROSITY.

This spring taxpayers of Wisconsin will pay dearly for a piece of legislative folly the like of which perhaps has never before been witnessed in this state. By some inexplicable means a measure was plotted through both houses, submitting to popular vote the question of the adoption of a fantastic, "pocket" ballot to take the place of the simple Australian form now in vogue. Possibly the solons cared little about the matter. Perhaps they thought the people have a right to a referendum upon "most any old thing." They may not have realized that a plebiscite can become a most costly procedure. But whatever their views, the serious fact remains that the submission of this pocket-ballot proposition to the electorate is to prove a pure waste of the money of the taxpayers of upwards of $40,000. This great expense is necessitated by the official publication in all the counties of the information relating to the ballot.

And the whole scheme is ridiculous. The so-called pocket ballot is but a fat pocket of what resembles nothing so much as var-colored trading stamps out of which the elector must sort the peculiar hue that accords with his peculiar political convictions, detach such portions as he wishes to reject, just as milkmen treat milk-tickets, enclose the mutilated residue in one envelope, the refuse in another, and pass both over to the ballot clerk. This electoral monstrosity which it is to cost $40,000 to reject, is an amazing combination. It embraces—that is the model form offered by the "inventor"—five sheets of cardboard, red, blue, green, yellow and white, each sheet 9x5 inches in size and each containing just twenty perforated lines, setting off the ballot into eighteen separate detachable tickets. Then there are two envelopes, the smaller embracing eighteen shallow pockets, of size to accommodate the tickets for which they are intended, while the larger is a manilla composition big enough alone to cost as much as the Australian ballot now in use! This intricate ballot is objectionable because:

1. Of its excessive cost.
  2. Of its complications.
- It is the acme of the absence of simplicity—and nothing is more essential in our electoral system than to have the ballot plain and understandable.

The plebiscite should result in an overwhelming negative vote. Every printer in the state should condemn the costly innovation—for not a single small office can carry the equipment to furnish ballots of this intricate character.

Then the cost! Imagine five pieces of perforated cardboard, all mechanically planned together, and two envelopes—the whole ensemble decorated with printing! It is no time for the public to experiment with expensive and mystifying innovations of this kind, particularly when the voting machine is looming up above the political horizon, but there can never under any circumstances come an occasion when the public will adopt a multiplex ballot so long as voting may be done, as now, by a few pencil marks upon a single sheet of cheap white paper.

But spontaneous, emphatic, unanimous rejection of the proposed ballot will not save to the people the $40,000 which the referendum entails. And there is the burling shame of it all!

A TRYAT

I will not break the trust, my dear. That we have kept so long. Though winter and its snows are here, And I've no heart for song.

You went into the voiceless night, Your path led far away, Did you forget me, Heart's Delight, As night forgets the day?

Sometimes I think that you would speak.

It still you held me dear; But space is vast, and I am weak— Perchance I do not hear.

Surely, however remote the star You wandering feet may tread, When I shall pass the sundering bars Our souls must still be wed.

WHY YOU SHOULD VOTE FOR JUDGE DUNWIDDIE

Judge Dunwiddie is very popular in Rock county where he has been known to the people for over thirty years through his large practice as a lawyer for twenty-five years, and his seven years upon the bench. During his practice he held a high place among the leaders of the bar, and during his seven years upon the bench he has taken an equally high place among the judges of the state by reason of his ability and fairness and impartiality, and gained the admiration and respect of those who have had business to transact before him. There is not a township in Rock county where Judge Dunwiddie has not warm friends and supporters who are loyal, and actively working for his re-election. And this, in addition to the fact that a great majority of the people of the county not only look with disapproval on an attempt to displace an able and impartial judge, but because they desire Judge Sale to stay in the office where he has given such satisfaction, and not put a new and untried man in that important place, insure to Judge Dunwiddie a large plurality in Rock county over the other candidates in the coming election.

In Jefferson county during his term upon the bench Judge Dunwiddie has made hundreds of friends, and thousands of acquaintances throughout the county; they know of him at least in every household in the county, and they know nothing but good of him, whatever may be their desire as to their home candidate. Scores of prominent men in Jefferson county have expressed their desire to see Judge Dunwiddie elected, and declared their intention to work for him at the coming election.

In Green county Judge Dunwiddie was born and lived until he came to Janesville to practice law. During all his life up to that time Green county was his home; he went to school there, and he taught school there. He has many relatives in Green county, and before he became a circuit judge he had already a large circle of friends, and acquaintances through his residence and teaching there, as well as through his practice as a lawyer, for after his removal to Janesville he tried a large number of cases in the court of Green county, thus extending his already large circle of friends and acquaintances. It may be said that wherever Judge Dunwiddie has come before the people as a lawyer or as a judge he has made friends and admirers. And now, after his seven years as circuit judge in Green county, people all know him and like him, and so many are actively working for his re-election that a large plurality in his favor in that county is assured.

What is Judge Sale's strength in Jefferson and Green county? He has none. The people of Jefferson county and Green county have never seen him or heard of him. How can his friends hope for any support for him as against Judge Dunwiddie and their own candidates? No one who stops to consider the situation believes for a moment that Judge Sale, in this contest, can get anything more than a good vote in his own county, while Judge Dunwiddie is assured of a large support not only in Rock county, but also in the other two counties of the circuit.

It is for these reasons that the people of Rock county should unite on Judge Dunwiddie and re-elect him to the office he now holds.

PRESS COMMENT.

Kentucky to Honor "Old Abe."

Shelbygan Journal: The State of Kentucky is to erect a memorial to Abraham Lincoln. This is pretty certain proof that the war is ended.

The Least For Most.

Chicago Tribune: In view of the difficulty of saying anything good of the late Anarchist Most, let us little as possible be said concerning him.

Preferred to Skip.

La Crosse Leader-Press: Ten minutes after her wedding, a Wisconsin bride was told that every time her husband snapped his finger he expected her to jump, so she skipped.

Perkins of Iowa.

Oshkosh Chronicle: George D. Perkins, who is to be a candidate for governor of Iowa, was formerly a resident of Wisconsin and a printer at Baraboo. A fairly good start in life if he has kept it up.

Pressed Steel For Cars.

Evening Wisconsin: The awful incidents of the wreck on the Denver & Rio Grande railroad appeal for an early use of pressed steel, railway coaches that will not flash into flame like ignited powder.

Phone Still Shares Honors.

Chicago Record-Herald: The telephone is thirty years old, and some of the people who supposed it was going to put the telegraph out of business right at the start are probably still wondering how there can be room for both.

It's Too Good to Be True.

Oshkosh Northwestern: The president of the dressmakers' association says that women's gowns will cost less this year. And of course when the husbands hear of this they will insist on their wives sticking closely to the fashion.

May Get Plugging They Deserve.

Milwaukee Journal: The Appleton paper men who propose a real copper-bottomed, sure-enough paper trust and 5-cent paper, to the newspapers that have united to test their methods, seem to be showing their teeth at a time when they need filling.

Green Bay May Wait.

Kaukauna Sun: It is not probable that there will be any more beet sugar factories built in Wisconsin while the uncertainty of the tariff on sugar is being discussed, consequently Green Bay will be obliged to wait a while for that $1,500,000 proposed factory.

All in a Lifetime.

Chicago Inter Ocean: Every once in a while there is an attack upon the United States Senate, all along the line. And then all is quiet for another ten years or so, or until hysteria again seizes the election-by-popular-vote classes, as it does decennially or thereabouts.

Pretty Broad Assertion.

La Crosse Chronicle: To go from the senate to the cabinet is no promotion, while cabinet officers are always willing to be transferred to the senate. Mention of Mr. Spooner for a cabinet office is, it is presumed, merely intended to be complimentary to the senior senator.

Indiana's Chance.

Appleton Post: Should Professor Merica be nominated for, and elected to congress down in Indiana, of which there seems to be an excellent prospect, that state would gain a representative of whom it would have abundant occasion to be proud and congress itself would acquire a very useful factor.

A Double Dose—That's All.

Exchange: The Milwaukee Journal remarks that "Even the primary law does not seem to alter the jawbone features of a campaign." On the contrary the new law will naturally operate to give the people a double dose, for the reason that aspiring candidates will be forced to make two campaigns—one before the primaries and one before the regular elections.

And Now Farewell!

Madison Journal: With the resignation of Graduate Manager George F. Downer, the last of the big ones having to do with athletics at the University of Wisconsin has gone. Mr. Downer stood for good things in athletics and gave promise of being a most successful manager. He was, however, ground up between the millstones of the faculty and the student body.

Wisconsin at Pie-Counter.

Milwaukee News: The Washington Post prints a cartoon of "Wisconsin at the pie counter." Showing Senator Spooner raving in the pies with a long arm and Senator La Follette standing by struck with paralysis and with his basket empty. So far, it is true, La Follette has not had an opportunity to get at the spoils, but wait until he introduces his bill for the federal regulation of race-suicide. Then The Post may have a different story to tell.

Policed Through Life.

New York Evening Post: Lo the Poor Boy! He is getting supervised to death. He has had his athletics "regulated" and his recreation "arranged," he has been "manufactured into 'play circles'" and "improvement leagues," he has been analyzed, dissected, tabulated and classified. And now comes a New Jersey lady proposing that women should be added to the police force for the particular benefit of our boys. Policewomen could readily enter into the boys' games," she says, and the youngsters "would always be under the eyes of the policewoman, their official companions."

The Nerve to Say "No."

Marquette Eagle-Star: The Janesville Gazette calls attention to the wrong done the community by the habit of good citizens signing petitions for any candidate who may ask the favor without regard to his fitness. This is a matter that seriously affects every citizen, especially with the primary election law in operation. Almost any day one can hear men say "yes I signed his application but I hope he will not get it. I did not like to refuse him," however. This is a distinct wrong. If good citizens have not the stamina to choose their own candidates, now that they have the opportunity there is little chance of good officials being elected. It takes nerve to say "no" sometimes, but it is a very valuable little word to use on occasions.

French Tailor's English.

A French tailor, who advertised "English spoken," was sometimes at a loss for the right word. On one occasion, wishing to tell a customer that her girl was too high, he hesitated a moment, then, with a look of inspiration he said: "Madame, your curvature is too upstairs."

PRIMARY DAY IS VERY EXCITING

HEAVY VOTE IS BEING POLLED ALL OVER THE CITY.

DOUBT AS TO THE RESULTS

Question of Not Being Able to Split Tickets Is Very Intricate for Many.

Today the first test of the new primary law is being made in Janesville. An election day spirit seems to pervade the atmosphere and the wagonettes and buggies are bringing out a heavy vote in all of the wards. Cold raw winds are no bar for the ardor of the political aspirants and the work of getting out the vote is being rushed ahead. Heavy voting in all the wards is one of the characteristics of the day. In the Fifth and Fourth, where lively contests are being waged, there is much excitement. The feature of the primary, regarding the impossibility of splitting the vote has created considerable consternation all over the city and may work to the disadvantage of many of the candidates whose benches are not thoroughly posted on this subject. Political dogs are most unsatisfactory and the results can not be foretold until after the polls close this evening. As soon as possible after the returns are known they will be reported at the Gazette office, where a good forecast of the next council can be obtained.

City Attorneyship
The contest that is most closely watched is the city attorneyship fight. The three contestants—William Ruger, Jr., Stanley D. Tallman and H. L. Maxfield—have all conducted a strenuous campaign and the results are most eagerly watched. As there is no democratic candidate in the field and no probability of any announcing himself as an independent candidate the nomination practically assures success at the polls two weeks from today. Interested partisans of the three candidates are busy today, seeing that the voters for the democratic candidates do not forget to mark the city attorney slip. In the fifth ward where there is no republican ticket for alderman and supervisor this fact will cause much confusion, as many ballots are said to have been marked for the city attorneyship on the democratic ballot and will not count in the contest for the republican nomination.

Fathers Is Nominated
The only safe political announcement at this time is that James Fathers has again secured the nomination for city treasurer on the republican ticket by an overwhelming majority. It is also safe to predict that Judge Jesse Earle will also be successful. As there are no candidates opposing these men this is a perfectly safe assertion. Many who voted today were confused not to find any mention made of the circuit judgeship contest on the ballots and failed to see why this was left off. This contest comes two weeks from today and there are four candidates for this office to be voted for then, two from Rock county, one from Jefferson and one from Green county. One feature of the day is the fact that the saloons are all tightly closed according to the orders of City Marshal Appleby. A drink is a precious luxury until seven o'clock tonight.

With the Candidates
In the first ward the contest is between Walter Rice and Alderman Morrill. Both men have friends who are working hard and the fact the democrats have no candidates up makes the result uncertain, as the democrats may swing the election either way. In the second a good-natured contest is being conducted between George Buchholz and Frank Snyder for alderman, while Alderman Ed. Baumann on the democratic ticket is waiting for election day to exert his powers. In the third the three republican candidates—Watt, Allison and Cronin—are taking care that all the vote in the ward is brought out and carriages are conveying busy men to the polls to exert their rights of suffrage. In the fourth a lively contest is being waged between Sheridan and Miltimore on the democratic side and Carter and Macdon on the republican. Personal bitterness is entering into the democratic contest and the strict party vote will affect the city attorneyship ticket very largely. In the fifth another hot contest is on and the three democratic candidates are keeping close tabs on all voters to see that they do not neglect going to the polls. Rudolph, Rood and Murray are all candidates and the result is doubtful.

WERE MARRIED IN CHICAGO RECENTLY

Miss Marion Paul and Frankland Bunt Recently Wedded—Both Well Known Young People.

Through friends of the contracting parties news of the marriage of Miss Marion Paul of this city to Frankland Bunt of Chicago in that city two weeks ago has reached Janesville. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer M. Paul, 10 Prairie avenue, and the groom is a former Janesville boy, having lived here up to within the last year. Mrs. Bunt was a student in the high school and is possessed of many friends, who will be surprised to learn of her wedding. She is now at the home of her parents, being called here by the serious illness of her mother.

THE WOOL MARKET

There has been no general demand from manufacturers during the past week, but there have been considerable inquiries and houses have sufficient assortments to do a fair business. Could have made large sales if they had been willing to make slight concessions.

Report from the consuming industry shows some irregularity which is traceable mainly to the effect of the open winter in retarding the distribution of last season's stock. Nearly a quarter million pounds have been contracted in Utah by a Boston representative at 19 to 20c. In Nevada a few small contracts are being made at around 20c. Shearing is now in full blast in Texas.

These prices are only for wools of good quality. Medium unwashed fleeces show the greatest activity, although the supplies of any grade on the market are in excess.

Ohio one-quarter bloods are selling at 31; Michigan three-eighths at 22½. In yards there has been no buying during this week and European demand for wools is said to be good.

At Phoenix, Arizona, majority of the sheep have been shorn and sold at 20 to 21½c. The unusual good season and abundant range feed in Arizona for the past twelve months have given the woods an excellent growth and good staple.

The past week a leading Wisconsin house sold 250,000 pounds of quarter and three-eighths wools delivered in Boston at 23c. The cost of buying and transportation of same being about 4c per pound, which is a leader for prices of the coming clip.

Michigan wools are being shorn in different localities quite extensively and are ranging around these prices. The weather has turned cold through Wisconsin, but very little shearing is being done at present.

BELOIT FOREIGNERS HERE FOR "PAPERS"

Political Lieutenant Brought Men Up on Special Car—Four Were Refused Franchise.

Fifty foreign-born residents of Beloit were brought to Janesville on a special car over the Rockford, Beloit & Janesville Electric line last evening, and applied for their first set of naturalization papers from the office of the Circuit Court Clerk. Forty-six were granted the right to vote, but four had not resided in the United States a sufficient length of time and were refused franchise. The men were largely Russian Jews, but various other nationalities were represented. They are employed at different work in the Line City, the greater number being on the night force at the Fairbanks-Morse manufacturing plant. Mr. Cable, serving as an interpreter, chaperoned the company. He is a lieutenant of Lawrence Cunningham, for many years a member of the Beloit common council and school board, who now seeks the nomination for mayor against Mr. Crahan. The visit here was but one scene in a many-act political fight that is being carried on in Beloit this spring and in which the two papers are using from two to four columns of "opposition editorial" each evening.

HADLEY SCORES ON STANDARD OIL

ALL REPORT TO 26 BROADWAY

Transactions with So-Called Independent Company Are Settled by Check Through the New York Office of the Giant Monopoly.

St. Louis, Mo., March 20.—Brought to bay by the persistent efforts of Attorney General Hadley of Missouri, aided by recent opinions by the higher courts, counsel for the Standard Oil company Monday bared the secret relations between the Standard and the Republic and Waters-Pierce Oil companies.

The admissions made by the trust's counsel that stock in the Republic and Waters-Pierce companies was held by individuals for the Standard came as a surprise to Attorney General Hadley when the hearing in the Missouri ouster suit against the Standard and associated companies was resumed here Monday before Special Commissioner Anthony.

The most important points brought out in the testimony were facts which Mr. Hadley sought to obtain through the testimony of H. H. Rogers at the recent hearing in New York and questions concerning which Mr. Rogers refused to answer.

Summary of Testimony.

These points, summed up, are as follows:

That stock of the Republic Oil company is held by individuals for the Standard Oil.

That Frank Wilson, assistant secretary to W. G. Rockefeller, president of the Standard Oil, is a Republic stockholder.

That the Waters-Pierce Oil company bought oil from the Standard Oil refineries.

That in payment for oil bought by the Waters-Pierce Oil company from the Atlantic refinery of Philadelphia, an alleged independent concern, the checks since 1904 have been sent to 26 Broadway, New York, headquarters of the Standard Oil.

That stock in the Waters-Pierce Oil company is held by M. M. Van Buren, nephew of John Archbold, an official of the Standard Oil.

That Charles M. Adams, secretary of the Waters-Pierce Oil company, visited 26 Broadway to discuss the affairs of the Waters-Pierce company with Standard Oil officers.

Books Are Brought In.

In accordance with the ruling of the supreme court officers of the Republic and Waters-Pierce companies testified and books and papers from both companies were produced as evidence.

It was anticipated that C. L. Nichols, president of the Republic company, would be called to the witness stand, but after Secretary McKee had finished his testimony it was announced by Attorney General Hadley that the presence of Mr. Nichols at this time would be waived on the ground that Mr. McKee had given all the information desired at the present time.

Depositions taken in Cleveland and in Oklahoma City were offered in evidence and objected to by counsel for the defense, but the objections were overruled and the depositions admitted.

PUDDLERS LOSE IN PASS STRIKE

Order in Ohio Plant Preventing Frequent Drinks Maintained.

Youngstown, Ohio, March 20.—The striking puddlers all returned to work at the Valley mill Monday and the strike is at an end. No concessions were made by the company other than that Patrick McNally, who broke the pass rule, was allowed to return with the others. The puddlers struck because the company made a rule that the men should not leave the yards of the plant between heats, which prevented them from going out for drinks.

William Sinn, a driver, sustained fatal injuries in a collision with an Oakland avenue car in Milwaukee.

OUTLAW BAND RESISTS ARREST BY SHOOTING

Policeman is Killed by Bandit, Implicated in Robbing Postoffice at Brooklyn, Mich.

Jackson, Mich., March 20.—Three men alleged to be the outlaws who robbed the safe in the postoffice at Brooklyn, Mich., when cornered by officers in the railroad yards here Monday, opened fire and Policeman Fred Booth, aged 35, was shot dead.

One of the three men was arrested by the other officers, but the man who fired the shot and killed Booth and the third member of the trio of suspects escaped.

After an all-day search by armed posses in automobiles and on horses two men who gave the names of John Hamilton of Cleveland and John Blake of Saginaw were surrounded and captured in a barn four miles west of this city. An angry mob of citizens was at the jail when the two prisoners were brought in from the country, but no disorder occurred.

The first man arrested says he is John Walsh, an ex-convict from San Francisco. He claims that he was not with the men during the robbery of the Brooklyn postoffice, but met them in the Michigan Central railroad yards here.

Word was received here early Monday that the postoffice had been robbed Sunday night at Brooklyn, fourteen miles from here, and $200 in money and $400 in stamps stolen. Three hours after the robbery occurred word reached the officers that three suspicious-looking men were in the neighborhood of the Michigan Central shops. Sheriff Parrish, Policeman Booth and two other officers went to the scene and Booth was shot dead by one of the trio when the officers tried to arrest them.

Cashier Denies Guilt.

Philadelphia, March 20.—George P. Brock, formerly cashier of the Doylestown (Pa.) National bank, on trial, charged with embezzlement, went on the witness stand, denied all of the allegations, and said he secured over $30,000 of the funds of the bank in a business manner.

Many-Tailed Kittens.

Cats with nine lives and cats without tails have always been plentiful in Wapakoneta, O., but cats with two or three tails were never seen there before. Peisler brothers are the proud possessors of three kittens with seven tails, two have two tails each, and one has only one common tail. The extra tails grow out of the kittens' backs along the backbone, are fully developed and almost as long as the natural tails.—Exchange.

GARMENTS FOR SPRING WE WANT YOU TO SEE THEM.

DAME FASHION is exceedingly kind in her authorization of this Spring's modes. A more pleasing array of garments were never vouchsafed.

Short coated suits, the "chic" Eton effects will carry laurels, for they promise to be quite the vogue. You will be convinced of this as soon as you see them—for they are gracefully "ultra" in their every style line.

Some of the Spring suits are inclined to be almost severely plain—many are neatly and quietly ornate, but the majority—especially of the Eton styles, are strikingly elaborate. As our assemblage gives ample choice for pleasing expression of each class—every taste, no matter how fastidious, can find perfect fulfillment here.

And the Jackets, "trimness" personified. The stylish "etons," but a greater collection of the popular covert jackets. And about the prices. It's almost an axiom—in this vicinity, so often is it repeated,—"Go to J. M. Bostwick & Son's garment department for the lowest prices and finest garments."

SUITS—The beautiful styles we show in gray creations appeal to women in search of exclusive things. Have them in plain, checks, and narrow stripes in Panama cloths. Jackets are of the Eton style, skirts made with small tucks, some in the new circular idea. Every day we are adding to our large assortment. A pretty novelty is a suit of reseda green with short sleeves trimmed with moire silk and Persian braid. Many other suits that will not be common. Prices, $15.00, $16.00, $20.00, $23.00, $25.00, &c.

SKIRTS—Black Voiles, handsomely trimmed with black silk braid and silk bands. Panama cloths in black and grays, $5.00 to $16.00. Lovely skirts in black and white checks and new grays.

COATS—The long loose gray checks with fancy trimming are up to the minute. Short tight fitting coverts in all styles and sizes; also coverts in the long, loose coats.

Children's Coats—A beautiful lot of them in fancy plaids and plain colors. Now is the accepted time to act, while assortments are good.

ALTERATIONS—An important part of suit selling. Our expert tailoress thoroughly understands her business.

DON'T DELAY USING PASTEURIZED MILK

... ANY LONGER ...

State Veterinarian E. D. Roberts last night called the city council's attention to the fact that milk was being sold in the city from cows affected with tuberculosis. To reveal the danger involved he has on exhibition at his office the lungs of some of the diseased cattle, and these the aldermen have decided to view on Wednesday at 2 p. m.

Why expose yourself and family to this most dreaded of diseases, when by using

PASTEURIZED MILK

you can be absolutely safe? We make every effort to obtain our milk from healthy cattle, but when tuberculosis is as prevalent as it now is, we are sometimes not absolutely sure. In order to do away with this uncertainty and to make it positive that the milk IS pure when it reaches the consumer, we put every pint of our milk through the Pasteurizing process. It is impossible for any germ life to exist in milk that has been Pasteurized.

Isn't it worth something to know that your family is safe from contagion along this line?
